

ARTHOUSE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

STRONGER KIDS THROUGH THE ARTS

ArtHouse Privacy Policy:

ArtHouse is committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information of its staff, volunteers, donors and other stakeholders. We value the trust of those we deal with, and of the public, and recognize that maintaining this trust requires that we be transparent and accountable in how we treat the information that you choose to share with us.

During the course of our various activities, ArtHouse frequently gathers and uses personal information. Anyone from whom we collect such information should expect that it will be carefully protected and that any use of, or other dealing with, this information is subject to consent. ArtHouse's privacy practices are designed to achieve this.

Defining personal information:

Personal information is any information that can be used to distinguish, identify or contact a specific individual. This information can include an individual's opinions or beliefs, as well as facts about, or related to, the individual. Exceptions: business contact information and certain publicly available information, such as names, addresses and telephone numbers as published in telephone directories, are not considered personal information.

Information in the public domain is not subject to privacy legislation and as such is not included in this policy.

We consider donor and volunteer information always to be personal information, and do not disclose information about donors or volunteers without consent.

In accordance with and in addition to the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) Donor Bill of Rights and CRA, ArtHouse observes the following practices when collecting, maintaining and using personal information:

Consent:

An individual's consent is required regarding the collection and proposed use of personal information when information is collected. Consent can be either expressed or implied and can be provided directly by the individual or by an authorized representative. Express consent can be given orally, electronically or in writing. Implied consent is consent that can reasonably be inferred from an individual's action or inaction. An individual's consent is required before confidential information is released to outside parties.

Limited Collection:

The collection of personal information is limited to that which is relevant and necessary to our programs and fundraising efforts. ArtHouse will not make unwarranted or intrusive inquiries into a donor or prospect's gift history or personal life.

Limited Use, Disclosure and Retention:

Personal information shall not be used or disclosed for purposes other than those for which it was collected, except with the consent of the individual or as required by law. Personal information shall be retained only as long as necessary for the fulfillment of those purposes.

Accuracy:

Personal information shall be as complete, accurate and up-to-date as possible. Donors are encouraged to review, correct and update personal information.

Security Safeguards:

Personal information gathered by ArtHouse shall be kept in confidence. ArtHouse personnel shall be authorized to access personal information based only on their need to deal with the information for the reason(s) for which it was obtained.

Appropriate physical and electronic measures shall be used to ensure personal information is secure. Access to donor and volunteer records shall be limited to those who require such information to fulfil their job responsibilities. Special protection shall be given to all records pertaining to anonymous donors. The confidentiality of donor and volunteer records shall continue after the relationship with the individual has ended.

Confidentiality:

Donors who request that their name and/or the amount of the gift not be publicly released shall remain anonymous.

Openness:

Upon request, individuals shall be given access to the information in their donor record.

Further information on privacy and your rights in regard to your personal information may be found on the website of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada at www.priv.gc.ca.

OUR VISION – Building Better Communities Through the Arts

OUR MISSION - ArtHouse is a Halton-based charitable organization that offers free programs to Front of the Line children and youth from JK-Grade 12, most particularly to individuals from families who may not have access to Arts-related activities. Since 2009, ArtHouse has provided 492 programs to 7,096 participants at 73 locations throughout Burlington, Halton Hills, Milton and Oakville.

OUR APPROACH – through the ArtHouse Front of the Line Program and working collaboratively with Community Based Agencies, we provide priority registration for children from our community's most vulnerable families.

OUR PHILOSOPHY - ArtHouse enables our participants to discover hidden talents, unleash their imagination and experience the joy of expression. We aim to cultivate life skills that will build confidence, influence active citizenship, social inclusion and better physical and mental health.

OUR PROGRAMS - Creative and visual arts, music, cooking, yoga, improv, theatre performance and dance.
